Ballarat Spring Seminar 13th & 14th September 2008

INDEMNITY NOTICE

Please read carefully.

AIKIDO is a martial art and hence certain traditions and principles must be understood and observed at all times. Any martial art, by its very nature has an element of danger and unpredictability in its practice so permanent and serious injury could possibly result from your participation in the Ballarat Spring Seminar to be held on the 13th & 14th September 2008. For this reason we ask you to carefully read the indemnity below and indicate your assent by signing your name. Participants under 18 years of age must have their parents or guardian sign to indicate their consent.

To Be Completed By Participant:

I, _____ (name), the undersigned, of _____ (address - yours or your dojos), hereby recognise that Aikido being a martial art could by its nature produce serious and permanent injury and realise that a careful and disciplined attitude is required at all times to minimise the risk of injury. I acknowledge that should I sustain any injury, no matter how caused, through participation in the Ballarat Spring Seminar, no liability, neither tortuous nor contractual, will attach to any of the instructors of or participants in the said Seminar.

- I have the following illness, disability or injuries that could place me at risk of injury during the training:

Notwithstanding such injury(s), I agree to assume the risk of such injury(s) being aggravated and indemnify the instructors of and participants in the Grampians Aikido Ballarat Spring Seminar for any liability with respect to this or any other injury I may sustain no matter how caused.

Signature of participant: _____ Date: _____

Signature of parent or guardian: _____

(To be signed by parent or guardian if participant is under 18 years of age).
